UNITED STATES OF AMERICA } ss
District of Oregon

Whereas a libel of information has been filed in the District Court of the United States of America for the District of Oregon on the 3d day of March A. D. 1863, by Edward W. McGraw Attorney of the United States for the said District of Oregon, on behalf of the United States against the ship or vessel, to-wit: The steamboat called the Maria, her tackle, apparel and furniture, alleging in substance that William D. Adams Esq. Collector of the Customs for the Port of Astoria on the 3d day of March 1863 at the Port of Portland, in said District of Oregon, on waters navigable from the sea by vessels of ten or more tons burthen seized said ship or vessel to-wit: said steamboat called the Maria her tackle apparel and furniture and then held the same in his custody at said Port of Portland as forfeited to the use of the United States of America; that said steamboat being an American ship or vessel duly registered as such at the Port of San Francisco in the District of California, was in the year 1859 at the Port of Victoria, in [illegible] Island, the same being a foreign port, sold or transferred in whole or in part in trust confidence or otherwise to a subject or subjects of Her Britannic Majesty; that in the month of August 1862 the said steamboat Maria did enter the Port of Astoria in said District of Oregon, the same being the first American Port at which she had entered since said sale or transfer and that said sale or transfer was not made known as by law required, contrary to the statute in such case made and provided and that by said sale and transfer and the neglect to make the same known as aforesaid the said steamboat her tackle apparel and furniture became forfeited to the United States of America. And that a certificate of registry granted to the said steamboat Maria, as an American vessel at the port of San Francisco in the District of California July 29 1858 was on the 8th day of August 1862, at the Port of Astoria in the District of Oregon fraudulently or knowingly used for said steamboat Maria she being a ship or vessel not then (to-wit on said 8th day of August, 1862) actually entitled to the benefit thereof according to the true intent of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act concerning the registering and recording of ships or vessels," approved December 31st, 1792, by which fraudulent or knowing use of said certificate of registry said steamboat Maria, her tackle apparel and furniture became forfeited to the United States of America. And praying that the same may be condemned as forfeited as aforesaid.

Now therefore in pursuance of the monition under the seal of the said Court to me directed and delivered I do hereby give public notice to all persons claiming the said ship or vessel to-wit: the said steamboat Maria her tackle, apparel, and furniture that they be and appear before the said District Court to be held at the Court House in the City of Portland in and for the said District of Oregon, on the first Monday of April next at ten o'clock in the forenoon (provided the same shall be a day of jurisdiction otherwise on the next day of jurisdiction thereafter) then and there to interpose their claims and make their allegations in that behalf.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

FRIDAY MORNING, MAR 20, 1863

By Telegraph.

The previous rumor—as to the removal of office holders in San Francisco is confirmed, and it now appears that there is to be a general sweep of all who have supposed themselves snugly safe for four years If the cause stated is correct, we are glad that the President and Secretary of the Treasury do not hesitate in their duty, and hope they will fill the positions with those only who are "honest, faithful and capable" We think there has not been an Administration for many years, if ever indeed, which has been compelled to supersede so many of its own appointments, especially on this coast, and it is creditable to it, that it will not retain unworthy officials in its confidence It might have been better had more care been exercised at first and merit had been the sole basis of its action, but mistakes will happen, and reform is better late than never We are glad to observe the proposition to make an immense camp of instruction, and trust that its effect will be to put only well disciplined troops into the field. By the Conscription Act, the President has full power to make the army as large as he pleases, and he will do well to exercise it forthwith. It is time that some of the Peace Democrats did their share of patriotic duty, and we reckon that after a few months' service, they will think more of the Government and its preservation than they appear to of the negro and of slavery.

The dispatch reports the discovery of large numbers of armed and uniformed negroes in the rebel ranks on the Rappahannock. That will strike our friends of "white fighting" as something positively awful What do they think of our soldiers being shot by colored men, while the Government cannot, according to their theory, use the same sort of troops to fight and shoot down rebels? Perhaps their eyes will be opened after awhile and when in some battle, they hear that negro soldiers under the orders of their masters, have won a victory over white men, who might have had the same force by asking for it. At any rate, the absurdity of this opposition to the enlistment of negroes is daily becoming more apparent, and we believe the sound judgment of every man will soon admit that the Government is inexcusably foolish if it neglects or refuses to employ so efficient an auxiliary. If the rebels can make it effective, we confess our own weakness when we say that we cannot.

DELAWARE.—The newly elected Governor of the Slave State of Delaware, addresses the Legislature of his State in a strain of enlightened patriotism which is in delightful contrast with the semi treasonable utterances of the Governors of New York and New Jersey — Governor Cannon's address is full of honest, outspoken support of the right side in this infernal Rebellion, and he pledges prompt and entire co-operation with the National Government in every effort to restore the unity of the nation and the supremacy of the Stars and Stripes. He goes over the much-debated ground of the assumed right of Secession, as the result of State Sovereignty, as understood by the Slave Democracy and satisfactorily exposes its fallacy. On the matter of arbitrary arrests he is of the opinion that no loyal citizen will grumble at mistakes by the Government in such a time as this, and that the unpatriotic and disloyal have no right to complain under any circumstances. With the question of Slavery and the negroes the Governor grapples boldly. He shows that it is decidedly for the interest of Delaware to choose the side of Freedom Her trade and commerce are with the North, and her posterity is indissolubly linked with that of the Free States. He takes high and unequivocal ground for Emancipation, recommending the passage of a law for the gradual abolition of Slavery, and brings to the support of this view some very strong arguments. And in closing his address, instead of whining about minority Presidents, illegal arrests, bastiles, and habeas corpus, he utters the following patriotic and manly sentiments —

> He who calculates that a nation can be involved in a struggle like this, and that no practical results will follow victory or defeat has read history to little purpose It would be as reasonable to expect a hurricane to pass through the forest without leaving the ground strewn with dead branches and sapless trunks, as that this tempest of civil war should sweep over the land and leave no memorial of its progress. The longer the contest is protracted the more radical will be the change wrought That it may be shortened should be the ardent supplication of every Christian that it may end in the establishment of the integrity of the Union, the fervent prayer of every Patriot I invoke the God of our fathers, that God of concord who presided over their deliberations when they laid the foundation of the Republic, to incline the hearts of our Southern brethren to peace and submission to the legally constituted rulers of the nation, but failing this, I pray that same God who is the God of battles, that he may grant victory upon victory to the Union arms until every vestige of rebellion is swept from the land, and the Flag of the United States—the symbol of her sovereignty—shall again wave, in undisputed supremacy, over a free, united and prosperous people.

By Overland Telegraph.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to March 13th.

YREKA, March 13

CHICAGO, March 13 —The news this morning is very meagre and unimportant A Washington special dispatch to the Times says that Secretary Chase has appointed an entire new set of office holders for the San Francisco Mint, the Custom House &c in response to late revelations of fraud by department's special agents Senators express an opinion that the U S Senate will be able to adjourn to day

NEW YORK, March 1 —The Tribune's Washington special says that it is reported that the Government contemplates the establishment here or at Annapolis of a camp of instructions for 1,000,000 men, an indication of purpose that will give utility to the conscription law

The Herald's Washington special dispatch says that the expedition which started out a few days ago to traverse the neck of land between the Rappahannock and the Mattahony rivers, returned on Sunday to Falmouth Topographical reconnoissances were made by Capt Wilcox, of Gen Reynolds' staff All the court houses on the neck and all the ferries on the Rappahannock for eight miles below our lines, were visited Another smuggling nest has been broken up and the smugglers captured, also several rebel officers and a valuable store and contraband goods Several boats that had been engaged in carrying goods across the Rappahannock, were destroyed A large ware-house, filled with wheat and corn ready for transportation, was burned.

Gen Hooker was busy to day with the President, the Secretary of War and the Committee on the conduct of the war He returns to the army to night

Headquarters Army of the Potomac, March 12.—The pickets of the enemy ranged along portions of the line on the opposite side of the Rappahannock are half negroes and half whites. The negroes are armed and uniformed. The fact appears beyond question, as only 150 yards intervene between our pickets and the enemy's They are plainly to be distinguished

NEW YORK, March 13 — A Washington special dispatch to the Herald gives the following Rutherford's creek near Columbia, March 11 —Van Dorn's whole rebel force has retreated towards Shelbyville The country between Nashville and Columbia is cleared of marauders and the means of crossing Duck river destroyed

The Times' Washington special dispatch says that more refugees from the South, who arrived at Washington yesterday, give deplorable accounts of the destitution there, and state that there is much suffering in Richmond for the actual necessaries of life.

Second Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Mar 12 —Letters from England call renewed attention to an immense fleet building in Great Britain for the rebels and of the necessity of a peremptory demand on Palmerston to put a stop to this mode of making war.

The Navy Department is about to issue an advertisement for sea going vessels on a new model, to carry 10 casemated guns, weighing 20 tons, with carriages and rigging, to have two pair of engines, and to be 21 feet draught, the proposals to be opened within 30 days

CONCORD, N H March 12 —The election returns are still very close If Judge Eastman is not elected by a majority of the votes cast he will want only a few hundred In the 1st Congressional District it is probable that Marcy, Democrat, is elected In the House the Republicans will have nearly as large a majority as last year The Senate stands 6 and 6.

WASHINGTON, March 12 —Dispatches from Admiral Dupont mentions the capture of the schooner Belle of Nassau, off the coast of Georgia with a cargo of coffee and salt

NEW YORK, March 12 —Money is easy at 6 per cent, Gold closed at 60½

BALTIMORE, March 12 —The steamer Ericsson arrived here this morning from Port Royal with dates to the 8th Chief Engineer Stephens who was on the Passaic during the attack on Fort McAllister brings despatches for the Government The Monitors are back at Port Royal in good order The bombardment lasted 20 hours, but the boats could not get near enough to the Fort to dismount the guns The British steamer Queen of the Wave was ashore near Charleston, her crew escaped Admiral Dupont was trying to save her The movement on Charleston has not yet commenced Charleston papers say the Indianola and Queen of the West are both in good condition A rebel Lieutenant, captured near Charleston, says that peace negotiations have been progressing for three weeks at Richmond, but the press is not allowed to mention it.

NEW YORK, March 12 —A Nashville dispatch, of the 11th, says that a man direct from Shelbyville says that Bragg has been reinforced by eleven brigades The rebel General Earl stated to him that enough force had been received from Richmond to resist any attack from Rosecrans A large fleet of gunboats and transports arrived at Nashville on the 10th It is rumored that Fort Donelson is again threatened A skirmish took place yesterday 12 miles east of Paris (Ky) One of our forage trains was attacked by 50 guerrillas, who were beaten off

California News.

SACRAMENTO, March 13 —In Senate to-day the bill appropriating $600,000 for defense of the State and purchase of arms, artillery &c and maintaining 25,000 infantry and 3 000 cavalry, was discussed at length and made special order for Wednesday New general election bill was ordered engrossed

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13 —In some articles a fair amount of business has been done but trade is quiet, and condition of market unimportant Drugs, dry goods and especially English cotton and linen receive increased attention San Francisco cordage is higher, the manufacturers having increased their rates owing to material advance in the East Cumberland coal slightly lower and pig iron will not command late figures, refined sugars are weaker, money market continues easy, remittance from the interior have been fair, the quantity of gold bars necessary would not exceed the wants on ordinary occasions, but to day it will probably have more than adequate sales yesterday of $200,000 fine bars 850 to day there is little demand and rates range from 840 to 846 silver bars plentiful and quotable at 1@2 per cent premium Legal Tenders, buyers, rate 63 sellers 66@67 In stocks we notice sale of 450 shares of State Telegraph at 21@25

The Polish question attracted great attention The insurrectionary movement still continues

There were rumors in Paris of an alliance between England France and Austria to obtain the solution of the Polish question

LIVERPOOL, Feb 25 —Cotton languid but not lower Wheat very dull Corn difficult of sale

The Spanish Ministry has resigned The Mayor of Liverpool has given a banquet to to the Captains of the several relief ships

SLAVE TRADE IN THE PACIFIC.—The S F Bulletin learns that some Peruvian vessel had been caught stealing Kanakas from the Paumotu and other groups of islands in the South Pacific ocean at present under the protectorate of France The brig Marie had been taken by a French man of war at sea and the bark Sea Serpent was seized by the authorities of Tahiti while in port When the Marie was seized, about one hundred and fifty natives of the Paumotu were on board The captain was imprisoned, and it is believed the vessel will be confiscated These natives were to have been taken to the Chincha Islands or the coast of Peru, to load vessels with guano

WHAT GOV SEYMOUR INTENDS TO DO —Such were the headings to numerous articles that appeared from time to time previous to Seymour's inauguration as Governor of New York — Well, Seymour has been inaugurated, and what has been done? Just nothing at all for which the South cares a farthing —Savannah (Ga) Republican

If anything could surpass the contemptible subserviency to the rebel cause displayed by the so called Democratic politicians, it is the absolute contempt with which they are regarded by the rebels themselves

Out of eight of the Methodist newspapers published in the East, only three, the Christian, Western and North Western Advocates, pay a profit; the Pittsburg and Northern Advocates pay expenses, while the others have been losing concerns Religious papers seem to be an unprofitable money investment, though none are conducted with more economy than the Methodist papers

The national debt of England is estimated to weigh in gold 6,282 tons in silver, 120 000 tons. To transport it across the sea in gold would require a fleet of twenty five vessels of 250 tons burden, or it might be carted by land in 12,680 horse carts, these would extend in a single line, fifty five miles Two hundred and eighty one thousand six hundred and eight men might carry it, each man to carry fifty pounds Put in five dollar gold pieces, and piled one upon another, the pile would be 710 miles in height.

The Providence Journal says that Jeff Davis is not foolish enough to believe that peace would follow separation He told the people at Jackson, Mississippi, that they must prepare to keep up a military organization, even if separation took place because troops would be needed in conflicts with us Of course they would And therefore it is better and cheaper for us to fight the battle through now

Legal Tender Notes this Day—60 cents.

OREGON CIDER.—Mr W. M Case, of Butte ville, left in our office, a day or two since, a couple of bottles of Oregon cider, manufac tured by him from the pure juice of apples, which in color and taste differs from anything of the kind we have before seen One bottle contained cider said to be 18 months old, and the other three months old The fluid posses sed a dark red color and tasted more like the juice of some kind of grapes than like the juice of apples It was quite pallatable, as evinced by the rapid disappearance it met with among the hands of the office, in conse quence of which we were unable to test the durability of its flavor when exposed to the air, but believe it will retain the same as long as most ciders do.

NOT FOUND.—Up to the latest accounts [illegible] received last night, the little son of Mr. Price had not been found Serious fears are entertained that some fatal accident has befell the little boy, though we sincerely hope that he may yet be found alive and well

P. S.—Since the above was in type, we have received the glad news that the boy has been found, all right. He had accompanied a brother out to their father's farm, in Washington county, without letting his parents know whither he had gone, thus causing a solicitude about his safety which none but a fond mother and indulgent parent can fully appreciate. "There is more joy over the lost one found, than over the ninety and nine that went not astray."

MAP OF WASHOE.—We are indebted to H H. Bancroft & Co., Booksellers and Station ers, San Francisco, for a very handsome copy of a map of the Washoe Silver Region of Nevada Territory, which will be found useful to those who may desire to ascertain the geography and topography of that famous region. For sale by J. L. Parrish & Co , Front Street.

LOCAL ITEM.—In these notable times when rams are all the go, a we(a)ther item might be considered somewhat sheepish among the [illegible] in this web-foot land; still at the risk of a punning criticism, we will venture the remark that we have had "a right smart chance" of weather for the past several days The side-walks and street-crossings of our city remind us vividly of a race-course, where excellent opportunity is afforded "to see pretty trotters;" but lest we might be called ugly names, we will "drap" the subject, and [illegible] is the patter of the soft rain on the roof, &c.

REAL ESTATE SALE.—Mr A B Richardson will sell the valuable property belonging to the Estate of Buel Woodard, deceased, on the 28th inst. Persons investing in real estate will do well to look after this chance For description of property, read advertisement.

EXCISE STAMPS.—After the first of April next, Mr. G. E. Graves, Deputy U. S Collector, will be prepared to furnish all kinds of [illegible] Stamps, and will receive Legal Tender in exchange.

Eloquent Response of General Rosecrans to the Ohio Legislature.—The following letter from General Rosecrans in response to the resolutions of the General Assembly of Ohio was sent in by Governor Tod

Headquarters Department of Cumberland, }
Murfreesboro, Tenn February 8th 1863 }

To the Honorable the General Assembly of the State of Ohio The resolution of thanks passed by your honorable body, to the Army of the Cumberland, its commanding General and his staff, has been duly received and published to the troops of this command On behalf of all I return you heartfelt thanks

This is indeed a war for the maintenance of the Constitution and the laws—nay, for national existence—against those who have despised our honest friendship, deceived our just hopes, and driven us to defend our country and our homes By foul and willful slanders on our motives and intentions, persistently repeated, they have arrayed against us our own fellow citizens, bound to us by the triple ties of consanguinity, geographical position and commercial interest.

Let no man among us be base enough to forget this, or fool enough to trust an oligarchy of traitors to their friends, to civil liberty and human freedom Voluntary exiles from home and friends, for the defense and safety of all, we long for the time when gentle peace shall again spread her wings over our land, but we know no such blessing is possible while the unjust and arbitrary power of the rebel leaders confronts and threatens us — Crafty as the fox, cruel as the tiger, they cried "no coercion" while preparing to strike us. Bully like, they proposed to fight us because they said they could whip five to one, and now, when driven back, they whine out "no invasion," and promise us of the West permission to navigate the Mississippi, if we will be "good boys" and do as they bid us

Whenever they have the power, they drive before them into their ranks the Southern people, and they would also drive us Trust them not. Were they able, they would invade and destroy us without mercy. Absolutely assured of these things, I am amazed that any one could think of "peace on any terms." He who entertains the sentiment is fit only to be a slave; he who utters it at this time is, moreover, a traitor to his country, who deserves the scorn and contempt of all honorable men. When the power of the unscrupulous rebel leaders is removed, and the people are free to consider and act for their own interests, which are common with ours under this Government, there will be no great difficulty in fraternization. Between our tastes and social life there are fewer differences than between those of the people of the Northern and Southern provinces of England or Ireland. Hoping the time may speedily come when the power of the perfidious and cruel tyrant of this rebellion having been overthrown, a peace may be laid on the broad foundation of national unity and equal justice to all, under the Constitution and laws

I remain your fellow citizen,
W. S. ROSECRANS,
Major General.

The Northwest Sound.—The St Louis correspondent of the Alta, writing under date of February 9th, furnishes that paper with the following:

Notwithstanding the gasconading of Peace Democrats in New Jersey, in Indiana and Illinois the copperheads do not accomplish anything practical. The result of their teaching was illustrated the other day in Indiana, where an attempt was made to resist the arrest of deserters by lawful authority. This is the very worst that may be expected. The violent speeches and the incendiary resolutions made and offered in New Jersey, Indiana, and Illinois, signify nothing save the bold malignancy of the author. Nine-tenths of the secession resolutions, or rather, the resolutions denouncing the war as an abolition war, and favoring an armistice, will never see daylight after being referred to the committees. The leaders are merely trying the temper of the people and thus far have met with poor success.

The people are as heartily in favor of prosecuting the war by every and any means to crush out the rebellion, until the last rebel in arms is conquered, as they ever were. The taxes imposed by the Government are cheerfully paid, and the public bear the burthens of the war with becoming patience Even in the West, where the rebels hope to find the first sympathy, the people are patient, notwithstanding the Government has cut off all commerce by seizing every steamboat available for service, as a transport. The Peace leaders do not find the sympathy they expected, and will certainly fail in their attempts to divide the loyal North Even in Kentucky, the Union sentiment is still strongest, in spite of the proclamation, and the rebellion is denounced as warmly there as in Indiana or Illinois.

More Greenback Smartness.—The Petaluma Argus says that a young man in Sonoma county, California, was owing a firm on Main street, a small bill amounting to a fraction over $11. The bill was of long standing and a settlement of the same was requested The young gentleman concluding that he would "play smart," bought a $10 greenback, for 70 cents on the dollar, and tendered the same on his account. It was received, and as there was a small balance due the firm he very innocently handed the clerk a ten dollar gold piece from which to take the balance. The clerk received it, and very blandly handed back the greenbacks as change The young sharper demurred, but it was no go — He went to a justice of the peace but received no consolation from that quarter He then with sorrowful visage, returned his steps to the broker from whom he purchased the greenbacks, and very modestly requested him to take it back This he was willing to do at 60 cents on the dollar The "smart" young man found himself outgeneraled on every hand, and with his greenbacks in his pocket, he took his departure from our city, doubtless convinced that, in this country, one man is just as smart as another—and sometimes a little smarter.

Bannock City Mines.—Many of our readers may not be aware where these mines are situated, and where Bannock City is to be found. Bannock City of the Beaver Head country, is in Missoula county, it is located on one of the tributaries of the Jefferson Fork of the Missouri river, or sometimes termed Beaver Head river It is about 300 miles from Lewiston in an easterly direction, as near as we are at present able to ascertain. The Snakes and Bannocks make that country or a little south of it, their home It was below Bannock City that Col Connor, of the California regiment, had a battle recently, killing 224 Indians and capturing 170 more Most of the people there came from the Territories of Colorado and Nebraska last season Extraordinary results have accrued from washing pans of dirt Rich quartz lodes have been discovered, and specimens of quartz covered with gold exists They have named a lode "Dacotah," and the dirt pays about $8 to the pan, and is found in a cave of great length, or a deep fissure in the earth At the above date (December) there was no snow on the ground, and so far the winter had been mild —Golden Age.

Madame Van Schaick's Cat and Rats.—The anger of an Amsterdam lady was recently caused by the mischance of Mynheer Diedrich, a zealous member of one of the volunteer rifle corps of the flat but handsome city who when practising at a target unluckily shot the cat of Madame Van Schaick Though full of rage and grief at the loss of her favorite and bent upon revenge the lady was anxious not to do or say any thing that could implicate her husband in the affair dreading lest a duel between the two gentlemen might be the result and accordingly determined to avenge on Madame Diedrich the death of the unfortunate animal She therefore sent private orders to her husband—for Mynheer Van Schaick is one of the most extensive ship owners of the city—desiring him to have the holds of their ships searched for rats, and to send her fifty of the finest specimens of these creatures that he could succeed in causing to be taken alive The order was promptly executed, and the rats, shut up in a large chest were despatched by the bereaved lady to the country house whither the Diedriches had betaken themselves for the summer The chest reached its destination in safety, arriving just as the owners of the delightful place were enjoying the beauty of a lovely summer evening. Madame Diedrich, who was expecting a box of dresses from town, and supposing the chest to contain the looked-for finery, caused it to be brought into the dining room and opened under her own eyes Her "feelings" when the lid was raised and the avenging army leaped forth from the ambush, may be imagined Nailed to the under side of the lid was a letter addressed to the dismayed and astonished lady, and containing these words

Madame—Your husband killed my cat I have the honor of sending you my rats
Yours, etc, Adela Van Schaick

Married by Telegraph.—The Oswego (N Y) Times says

On Tuesday 3d February a marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev William Carr, chaplain of the 4th Regiment New York State volunteers under rather novel circumstances, the clergyman and bridegroom being in the city of Washington, and the bride in the village of Fulton Oswego county during the ceremony The bridegroom is a member of the 4th Regiment, and circumstances prevented his being in Fulton to fulfill his engagement with the young lady. By mail the parties agreed to have the ceremony performed through the medium of the electric telegraph The day and hour having been arranged, the parties repaired to the telegraph offices at the respective stations, the fair bride accompanied by a female friend as bridesmaid The operator at Fulton officiated as bridesman The first despatch over the wires relating to the affair was from Washington, inquiring if the lady was present An answer in the affirmative was returned, and the ceremony proceeded Three messages were sent to Fulton and two transmitted to Washington, and the ceremony was completed — The last message from Washington was the declaration of the clergyman pronouncing the parties man and wife

A secession editor complains lustily of the recently enacted law which authorizes negroes to give testimony in our courts of justice As Spurgeon once remarked to a growling member of his flock, "What! out of hell, and complain?"

PROSPECTUS.

THE UNDERSIGNED TAKE PLEASURE IN announcing to the citizens of Dalles City Wasco County and the public generally of Oregon and Washington Territory that on or about Monday, the 6th day of April we will commence the publication of a Daily and Weekly Newspaper at Dalles City Oregon, to be called the

DEMOCRATIC STATE JOURNAL

The Journal will be devoted to the interest, the principle and augmentation of the Democratic organization upon the basis of the State and National platforms of that party, upon which the late glorious victories in the great States of New York Pennsylvania Indiana Illinois Ohio and New Jersey were achieved and of which such noble and patriotic statesmen as Seymour and Richardson are the champions and defenders It shall be the aim of the Journal to aid the Democratic party unswervingly by speaking the truth and discussing public measures freely fully and fearlessly, without the hope or expectation of favor or reward, other than the proud satisfaction of doing the duty of an American Citizen

Due and ample attention will be paid to the mining interest by chronicling all intelligence of discoveries and operations in the extensive and gradually developing gold fields East of the Cascade Mountains. To secure early full and reliable intelligence upon this important branch of industry arrangements have been perfected which will secure to the Journal authentic and regular correspondence from all the different localities attracting public attention The interest of the State [illegible] will receive prominent attention In a word, we are determined to publish a journal that may be perused [illegible] by all
